

Bay High Boys Annex Class A-AA Sub-District Cage Tournament; Kiln Boys Capture Class B-BB Championship

BRELAND SHOOT—Billy Breland (16), a sharp-shooting ace on the Bay High basketball team, shoots under the goal against St. Stanislaus. The shot was good. Paul Vetter (11) of Stanislaus goes in to try and block the shot. Donald Cole (3) of Bay High and James Schexnayder (12) of Stanislaus look on. In the other photo Charlie Moran, (12), of Bay High and Louis Ladner, (13), of St. Stanislaus go high into the air as they both try for a tap off. Donald Cole (3), Bay High, Harry Kershaw (20), St. Stanislaus and Billy Breland (6), Bay High wait for the outcome.

After their decisive victory over their home town rival, St. Stanislaus, the Bay High Tigers marched on to a final win over Picoayune to cop the Class A-AA Sub-District tournament.

The Bay High girls were not quite as prosperous. They lost their second game of the week to the strong Perkinson squad, but will still advance to the district tournament to be held this weekend.

With a full gym, stomping on the stands and matching cheer or cheer, Bay High slowly drew away in the last quarter to gain a 57-37 victory over St. Stanislaus.

Up until that point the Rockaways had managed to keep the Tiger lead from four to eight points.

Billy Breland and Kent Selmer shooting from outside the foul lines with a one handed push shot hit the nets for 12 points each to lead the Bay High scorers.

Harry Kershaw and Louis Ladner scored nine each for the top honors on the Stanislaus team.

Saturday night the Tigers weren't pressed hard as they trounced to an easy victory 61-44 over Picoayune. Donald Cole, who was hampered by the close guarding of Billy Rhodes in the Stanislaus encounter, bounced back to his usual stride sinking 23 point against Picoayune.

Bay High girls held a six point lead during the third quarter and finished the period with a four point margin. But, Anne Merle Holden fouled out and Bay High collapsed.

The Perk team rolled to a 51-38 victory, by gaining 16 more points than their opponents in the final period.

Faye Patton, a tall right or left handed hook shooter, scored 41 points, the tournament high, to lead the victors. Rosemary Millinery missed a number of foul shots but still wound up with 21 points to her credit.

The results of the games previous to the finals were Bay High girls defeated Picoayune 36-27 with Rosemary Millinery scoring 22 points, Picoayune by virtue of a 52-36 win over Poplarville. Picoayune boys defeated Perkinson 66-56 in the semi-finals and Bay High was just too much for St. Stanislaus in the other semi-final game.

The tournament victories boasted the win-loss record of the Bay High boys to 18-3. And the girls now have a 16-5 record.

The Kiln High boys laid an egg in the annals of their final game in the sub-district and came home defeated.

Blowing a 24-point lead, the Kiln boys finished the game with four men on the court.

Larry Ladner, Kiln's who is as accurate as a York most of the time, out early in the third quarter his team felt his shot. Teammates stopped him and practically stopped any shots whatsoever.

On the other hand, the Kiln started doing everything. And the lead closed.

With 10 seconds left in the game and Savannah leading two points one or missed two foul shots. Pass High gym roared.

Kiln managed to hold until the end of the game. Royce Shiyu hit the 23 points to lead the in the scoring division, followed by the Kiln Ladner, who gunned before he had to leave.

In the girls' bracket, the Kiln won the championship by ing Savannah 31-27.

In the opening game, the Kiln Pass High girls led a 47-39 verdict. nah. Ruby Jo Lively points to lead the Harborty girls.

Sellers, another Kiln County representative, led the slim margin of five to Savannah. The final was 47-42.

Paul Smith scored 14 points to cop the scoring honors for the girls.

McNeil girls handed the Kiln one of its worst defeats of the season. Dedeaux scored the backboard scoring points as compared to the opponent's 41.

Little Jackie Malley of deaux was eked to her scoring nights of the year nine points to her credit.

Kiln boys defeated the 68-59 in the semi-finals. Shiyu was high scorer in this game and scored 19 while Ladner was credited with 17.

The winners and this tournament played in Lyman for the championship.

Then the top four teams district go to the Southern.

The basketball season is coming down to the wire. All of the district tournaments will be held this week.

Hancock County has the distinction of being represented in two classes, the B-BB and the A-AA. Bay High has two teams, the boys and the girls, while Kiln is sending its boy's quintet.

From this corner it looks like the Bay High boys are bound for the State tournaments. This prediction is derived from careful observations of the schedule they have to face before the big show for the state championship.

In the District tourney this weekend Bay High first meets Lucedale, a team it has beaten a couple of times. If it is successful they meet the winner of the Picoayune-Brooklyn game. Here again it will be in a situation where they play a school, which has already tasted defeat at the hands of the Tigers.

So let us presume that the local school lives up to past performances and plays to the best of its ability.

Well, that would place it in the Southern tournament. As victors in the Eighth District they would meet the runnerup of either the Fifth, Sixth or Seventh District.

One victory in the Southern tournament projects a team into the state playoffs, because four teams from the South and four from the North meet for the state title.

The Bay High girls have a similar opportunity. But their chances are not as favorable as the males.

In the first game of the District the Tigerettes have to beat Lumberton, the winner of the other sub-district. The two teams have met twice and have split with one victory each.

If Bay High is victorious, it ties up with Perkinson again for the district championship. And no matter if the girls win or lose they advance to the Southern. Then one victory will give them a springboard to reach the state tourney.

The same holds true for Kiln. The only difference is that its class, B-BB, is tougher in the respect that there are more teams and many believe the calibre of ball is also better.

To win the District Kiln needs three victories. But even if it finished in the runnerup position the Wildcats will be on their way to the state tournament.

So you see, Hancock County has a chance to claim its most successful basketball season in years.

Not since the 1947 edition of the St. Stanislaus team has a local school played for the state crown.

This year we have the advantage of having three teams eligible for this honor.

Your correspondent knows that everyone shares the common wish that all three squads make the grade.

So make plans now to attend some of the tournament games and lend support to the local schools. Every little bit of well wishing helps the players.

When they know that the town is behind them, then they will try even harder to bring home the bacon.

This would be a good opportunity for the American Legion or some other organization to become motorcade conscious once again.

Bay High Teams Play Tonight In Tourney

The Bay High basketball teams play their first games in the Class A-AA District Tournament tonight in Lumberton.

The boys face Lucedale, a new opponent for the Tigers. Lucedale was the runnerup in its sub-district.

The girls meet Lumberton, a team they have defeated once and lost to once.

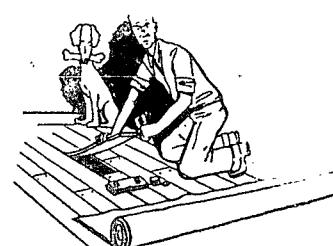

If either or both teams win, they play in the semi-finals Friday night.

The boys would meet the winner of the Brooklyn High-Picoayune game while the girls would have to play the winner of the Perkinson-Leakesville game.

The winner and runnerup in both divisions of this tournament advance to the Southern playoffs.

Red-White Game Set Today

The Annual Spring Training football game at St. Stanislaus, the Red and White encounter, will be held this afternoon on the practice field at the school's stadium.

Why?

As the proposed Hancock County hospital bounces over the field like a political football, there is one major question which remains unanswered?

Why do the county officials prefer to spend more than $200,000 instead of only $65,000?

That's the difference in dollars and cents in constructing the two hospitals. A Hillburton hospital, would require Hancock County to put up only $65,000. The state and federal governments would pay the rest. A county hospital would have to be built entirely by the county at a cost of more than $200,000.

So why the fight?
One view is that the Hillburton hospital will cost so much more to maintain after it's built. This may be partly true. If you're going to have nurses and proper equipment in your hospital. But what good is a hospital simply because it has lots of vacant rooms in it?

Another view is the 10 per cent limit on charity cases. Any-one sincerely concerned about charity does not have to worry about this. Should actual charity cases exceed 10 per cent, these people still would be taken care of. There are big new charity hospitals at Laurel and Jackson. Of course, it may be tougher to get political in-laws in these places as charity patients if they don't deserve it.

If a Hillburton hospital is built, we already have the money. If a county hospital is built, we'll have to float a big bond issue—and pay the incidental expenses such as the cut paid to the county clerk and the county attorney.

The doctors say we should have a Hillburton hospital. But apparently the politicians know more about medicine than the doctors. The people want an adequate hospital, but the politicians don't want any election. As a matter of fact, they seem to oppose ALL elections.

The question remains unanswered? WHY? It appears that we are going to "save" the county money by spending $200,000 instead of $65,000.

The Present Hospital

There's been some confusion about just where the present King's Daughters Hospital stands. It is inadequate for our needs. This is NOT the fault of the board, or of the people who work there. They have done a magnificent and unselfish job with what they have. But they simply don't have enough.

In fighting for a decent new hospital, there should never be any doubt about the fact that the present hospital staff and board has done much for the community. But you can't make a silk pocketbook out of a sow's ear.

John K. Edwards

The community lost one of its most splendid citizens, John K. Edwards, last week. Although out of public life in recent years, he did as much as any man to develop Bay St. Louis and Hancock County. He had an unsullied term as mayor. He was a big business operator—running a saw mill, a mercantile business and an automobile agency. He helped organize the Merchants Bank and Trust Co., and was a commodore of the Bay Waveland Yacht Club.

His passing was a true loss.

14 Woods Fires

Last Month

The County Fire Report for Hancock County in the month of January was fourteen woods fires and ninety-three acres burned.

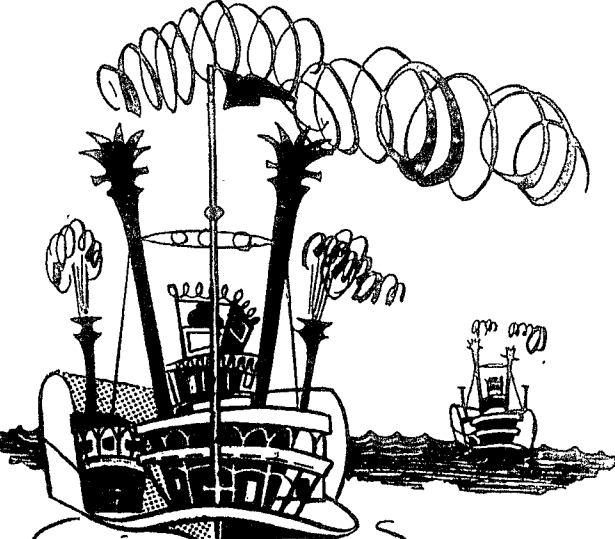

The month of February has exceeded that so far as acres burned. From the first through the twelfth there have been thirteen woods fires with five hundred and ninety acres burned. The high winds have been the main factor causing these fires to be as large as they have been. Also the people were careless on those particular days when the wind was so high.

To report a woods fire notify your county fire tower, "Rocky Hill"—phone 8100 or your County Ranger, 881-J.

IMPORTANT IN MISSISSIPPI!

What is it?

The high point of the old steamboat days was the race up the Mississippi in 1870 between the "Robert E. Lee" and the "Hatchess." It was won by the Lee. Now-a-days the river is far more important as a freight carrier than it was in the brightest days of the steamboat.

there's no doubt about the importance of the beer industry in Mississippi. Wholesalers and retailers have a $29 million investment here... employing over 16,295 Mississippians... and the beer industry is the fourth largest taxpayer in the State, paying over $4 million a year. It's largely through public acceptance of legally regulated beer, as the beverage of moderation, that beer has grown in importance to Mississippi.

'People In Far East Feel War Is Coming,' Says Recent Visitor

"The people of the Far East feel that is was coming sooner or later," stated Mrs. Adeline Samuel after her return from the cruise there with her husband, Dr. E. C. Samuel.

Mrs. Samuel, who stated time and time again that she could not be looked upon as an expert on the foreign problems concentrated in that section of the world, told the Sea Coast Echo of some of their experiences and some of the talk they heard while in the trouble marked territory.

She said, "As we were going from Manila to Hong Kong we saw an airplane carrier which I estimated had 300 planes aboard. The carrier radioed to our ship to keep away from it and to keep going. I don't know if this had any significance.

"During our stay in Hong Kong I found that the people were uneasy. Many of them feel that Red China could step in and take Hong Kong without any trouble. The United States Seventh Fleet is in the China Sea in readiness."

Mrs. Samuel continued, "We traveled to a half mile of the Red border in Kienan. There was absolutely no sign of activity on their side. The British have troops stationed on their side of the Red border and they were very well entrenched there.

"We came back on the ship with diplomats and military personnel who had been in Japan. From the course of the conversation I got the impression that the Japanese are showing signs of a deeply engraved dislike for the Americans."

Mrs. Samuel stated that the people in the Far East feel that a future war is a fifty-fifty proposition.

She said, "They feel that it will be inevitable sooner or later. And some believe that it will be sooner. But they also feel that the United States can handle anything that comes up." Concerning their two-day stay in the Philippines, Mrs. Samuels said, "My impression was that they haven't done much to rehabilitate themselves."

While on the subject of the Philippines, the small, very intelligent lady from Waveland said, "Going over on the ship I was talking to someone who pointed out to me one of the former Democratic leaders of the Islands. He stated emphatically that he wouldn't have a chance to return to power. Well the next day when we arrived, we learned that he had been reinstated and was back in power."

"In Hawaii," said Mrs. Samuels said, "Everything is pleasant and beautiful. Not only is it a tourist paradise but the economy is very good.

"Also one of the things that impressed me is that there was no racial discrimination whatsoever. It is the melting pot of many different races. "I found out that there is a problem of juvenile delinquency. It seems to be a worldwide situation."

Mrs. Samuel remarked that they had been told on the ship that they could not bring anything back that was made in Red China.

She said, "Any kind of trade with Red China is strictly out."

"The building in Japan," she continued, "is very interesting. The poor people over there build their homes out of wood from crates. All of the doors and windows are made of paper."

"Yes," Mrs. Samuel said "We had a wonderful time and enjoyed every minute of the trip."

Dr. Samuel sitting down in a big easy chair, looked up, and agreed with his wife.

"We had a wonderful time," he said.

POCASTING

By ANNE ORLEANS

The Ball of the Prophets of Persia has the reputation of always being one of the most spectacular of the Carnival Balls of New Orleans. This year was one of the loveliest with Venice as the background. Cute little Lucina Ann Beatty flew down from college on Friday night, was Queen of the ball on Saturday night and flew back to school on Sunday. Marietta Moyer, Lucy Gaudet's niece, and Jane White of Jackson, Miss., were among the maids to Her Majesty. The favors were lovely silk scarfs with prints of scenes of Venice.

Among those attending the ball and the supper at the St. Charles Hotel were Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Carter, whose guests were Dr. and Mrs. Irwin Boullet and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Sherwood. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Seal and Leo Seal, Jr., guests were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Maus, Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Ramsey, Mrs. Edmond Fahey and Mr. Anderson of Gulfport.

On the floor committee were Lacey Richeson and C. Ellis Henican who spend a great deal of time at their home on the Coast.

The whole Weston family, and it is a big one, are all excited over the big news. Mr. and Mrs. Clem Weston are now the proud grandparents of two little twin boys, John and Robert, who were born this past week to Walker and Mary Margaret Weston. In all the Weston family, there are usually more girls than boys so they are really celebrating the arrival of two boys at one time. Shall we say an extra dividend.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Ritter of New Orleans, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Moise. As guest gifts, they brought four pretty little wild holly trees and helped to plant them. They are now waiting for the stepping stones for the front entrance. Their place is called Twin Pines but they also have two twin cedars and twin pear trees.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rees over for the day last Sunday but they did not feel at home because it was too cold to use the barbecue pit.

Pretty Elizabeth Riddle, Lloyd Griffiths' niece, is coming all the way down from Centenary College in New Jersey, for the Carnival season. Lloyd and Evelyn have planned to take her to several of the balls and will see the parades on Mardi Gras day from the balcony at the Boston Club. Not only is she seeing Carnival for the first time but is looking forward to hearing the jazz bands playing the old favorites in the home of jazz.

Ralph Christman begins his military career and he and Mary Jane starts moving. Ralph was in the ROTC at Tulane University so he goes to Barksdale Field at Shreveport, La., as a Second Lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force. As soon as he finds a place to live, Mary Jane will join him.

Mr. Walter Gilman, who is spending the winter in New Orleans, spent several days with his daughter, Margaret Chamberlain. Don Chamberlain taking in Jacksonville, Fla., Atlanta and Savannah, Ga., Greenville, S. C., and trying to see Don, Jr., at the Christ School in Arden, N. C.

Margaret's Girl Scouts, Troop No. 1, of Bay St. Louis, went over to Keesler Field to give a Valentine Party for some of the hospital patients.

Patsy Shadoin, who is state president of the junior council of the Episcopal Diocese of the State of Mississippi, attended the meeting held this past week at Rose Hill, near Canton, Miss.

Helen Means, of New Orleans, week ending with Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Kirkpatrick. Mrs. Kirkpatrick still distressed because she had to miss the Style Show at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

Mrs. Ed Lasker and her sisters, Anna Maria and Magdalena Fisher, came over from New Orleans last week to see what damage the cold had done. Not too much. Poinsettias wilted and the red geraniums browned but you can't kill them. Ed Lasker did not come over. Busy with the rehearsals for his Crew's parade and Carnival Ball.

We all know that Mrs. Duralde Claiborne is a smart lady. And how? She came over to their home on Nicholson Avenue the day before the freeze and cut every camellia in the garden and now the house is beautifully decorated for the week end guests, one of whom is Yvonne's sister, Mrs. William Parkerson of Chicago, who was Mathilde Ross of New Orleans. Mr. Parkerson is attending a convention in Biloxi, so that gave Mathilde the chance to visit with the family.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard S. Kramer, of Jennings, La., spending the week end at their new home on the Beach and working on their planting plans for the garden.

News from Olla and Kitty Möllere in Munich, Germany. They hope to be on their way home in May and in the meantime are seeing as much of Europe as they can. Recently they visited in Austria, stopping at Berchtesgarden and Salzburg where they were partying.

edra. They sent home many lovely pictures of these places. Next week they go to Paris. By the way, their little daughter, Gail, is now eight months old.

Little Chip Gremillion is the proud possessor of two tiny but very sharp little teeth. Watch your fingers. Ibbie and Charles, as you know, are moving to Lake Charles, La., next week.

Mr. Tom Trudeau has retired. He goes in to New Orleans very seldom. He and his neighbor, Mr. Otto, will try to see whose garden will be prettiest and right now each garden is beautifully manicured. Mr. Tom keeps an eye on the whole neighborhood. When a North Beach car got stuck on Third Street in Waveland, who helped to get it back on dry land? Mr. Tom Trudeau.

Henry and Juanita had the whole family over for a barbecue lunch. Everything did taste so good. Poor Norvin Penrose! Don't dare ask him who left the telephone off the hook last Sunday.

In paying tribute to some of the more progressive business and professional men of Gulfport we would be remiss in our duty should we fail to include Jimmie Love of the Buena Vista and White House Hotels and who recently was elected president of the Miss. Hotel Assn.

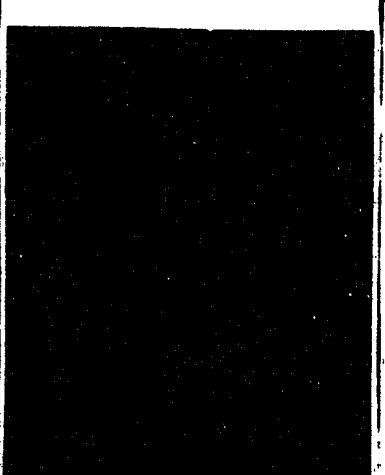

Mr. Love is a man who has contributed generously to the welfare of Gulfport and the community for many miles around. His civic spirit and energy is evident by the many services he has performed and continues to perform in the interest of the people as a whole. No worth while enterprise which promises to benefit the community as a whole escapes attention.

Geologists tell us that somewhere beneath the Earth's surface are natural gas and oil reserves sufficient to supply our needs for decades to come. That's comforting knowledge, but millions of dollars must be invested annually in exploration and drilling to make those reserves available for use.

The oil and gas producers who spend these millions do so in the hope of a profit in keeping with the risks they take. As long as they have the profit incentive, they'll continue to find adequate supplies for us. Let's encourage them in every way possible, for...
